

Endura Equipe compact shell jacket £65

Like Madison, Scottish brand Endura also sponsors a professional team. The relationship is evident here; this slim-line jacket is definitely designed with the racer in mind. The long arms and rear end help cover you up when you're down on the drops, and there are lots of high-end features, including long comfortable cuffs and bonus rear pocket. It packs up pretty small too!

Good mix of fit and features make for a solid jacket at a reasonable price
